

Publishing Department

DIRECTOR: Elder Linford Farquharson

To facilitate the spreading of the printed pages through out the county of Middlesex, the Publishing Department was organized in Central Jamaica Conference.

The Colporteurs goal was to reach every home through the ministry of Literature Evangelism. Elder T. T. McLeary was many times commended fro the progress of the work. He was ably assisted by Bro. V. C. Hutchinson who himself was an outstanding Literature Evangelist. Other leaders in the department were Pastors Wesley Gayle, a. L. Lyle, H. H. Holmes, and H.R.E. Smith.

Through this important arm of the church many members were able care for their families and their children, and many young people were able to sell books to pay their way through school..

We must pay tribute to some outstanding colporteurs who have made a name for themselves in Central Jamaica Conference. Brothers: Dillon, Edwin Murray, Hubert Philips, Carnegie, A. Lyn, Dennis Greenidge, E. H. Rickets, King, Sister V. McIntyre-Ellis, Suzan Haughton and many others.

These colporteurs kept the Publishing Work going in its good years and the lean years. We would like to thank these brothers and sisters for their effort and personal sacrifice as they have contributed to the progress of the Literature Ministry in Central Jamaica Conference.
